For more information call Mary Lou at 250-465-8928 or email at: haw@schoolhousequilters.com

Please have a designated representative from your guild give a brief talk on a special program or workshop they have held. We also will have a Show and Tell, so please bring your quilted items with you to show. We would really like to see what you have been doing .

Please acknowledge this email so I know someone got it. If you have a designate for further information please send me their email address.

Sheila Scrace will be our guest speaker. She will give us the full history of HAW and how it began.

We are giving hosting guilds a chance to register before other groups. If you have other small groups in your area that may be interested can you please forward me their contact email.
